C271 Doing Business in Germany explores the answer to the critical question: Why is Germany the current economic powerhouse of Europe? Supported by interesting videos and articles, students will explore Germany s economic strength, its family-run manufacturing companies, its dual system of education and apprenticeships, the unique culture of its people, its recent reunification and influx of refugees, and its leadership within the EU. C271 Germany meets two times weekly once with your team and once in class. Our in-class weekly meeting includes lively discussion leading to brief argument papers and team presentations. This class includes no lecture or exams.	Max	Avl	W/L

EDUC-X 152: Mapping Your Future: How to Make the Most Out of Your College Experience is an eight-week, two credit, graded seminar course designed for students to investigate the purposes of an undergraduate education at IU Bloomington and to expose them to the array of skills, tools, and opportunities that academic advisors, career coaches, and the university have to offer. The assignments and activities in the course include a mixture of readings, class discussions, journaling, out-of-class-activities, and a culminating semester project. By the end of the course, students should have a better understanding of themselves, their academic and career interests, and a plan to maximize their opportunities as an IU Bloomington student

 ${\tt X152}$  : For questions, please contact the course coordinator, Morgan Baugus at mbaugus@iu.edu
